

VERMONT-MADE SHOWCASE

Vermont is home to a growing community of creative spirits makers, from small-scale operations to larger producers — each adding a touch of Vermont flavor to their products. For more information, visit the Distilled Spirits Council of Vermont at distilledvermont.org. Get inspired and try one of these cocktails created with Green Mountain State-made spirits.

Respect Your Elder

- 2 ounces Dunc's Elderflower Rum
- 4 ounces sparkling water or club soda
- Fresh sage

In a glass, muddle fresh sage. Add ice, Dunc's Elderflower Rum and top with club soda. Garnish with a lime and enjoy.

Dunc's Mill Elderflower Rum

Dunc's Mill combines their all-natural rum with a bouquet of the finest wild-picked Vermont elderflowers and their own hybrid black and white elder to produce a flavor as bounteous and bright as a field of fresh flowers. Dunc's Elderflower Rum is best served chilled and goes perfectly in everything from a mojito to a drizzle atop ice cream.

Summer Flirt

- 1½ ounces Vermont Gold Vodka
- 2 ounces fresh watermelon juice
- ½ ounce fresh lime juice
- ½ ounce mint infused simple syrup
- 5 dashes Fee Brothers Rhubarb Bitters

Combine in a large mixing glass. Shake with 4 ice cubes and strain into a rocks glass filled with fresh ice. Garnish with a sprig of mint.

Vermont Gold® Vodka

Vermont Gold's fabulous nose is wonderfully lush and silky, with a mildly sweet and pleasingly assertive minerality that adds structure and style. Medium-bodied with a rich, velvet-like texture while delivering bright acidity resulting in perfect balance.
